FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

RALPH W. LLOYD
B.A., B.D., D.D., LL.D.

OUR PRESIDENT

Our favorite College President—Dr. Ralph W. Lloyd. It's no small job playing "pop" to a college family of nine hundred, but Dr. Lloyd manages it nicely with an engaging smile and a friendly handclasp. We're proud that he represents our college on many committees, the national councils of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., and state and national educational associations. Beside his usual duties as President of Maryville College, he is active in planning the new Fine Arts Center, now nearing completion, and the projected new Chapel.

Groundbreaking Exercises

The Captain and the Queen

H O M E C O M I N G

Founders and Homecoming Day this year marked the beginning of work on our new Fine Arts Center. Dr. Lloyd presided at the ground-breaking ceremony. Throngs of Alumni swarmed over the campus all day admiring the dorm decorations and flocked to their barbeque that evening and the Homecoming football game with W.N.C. that night. Lovely Ellen Collins was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Alumni Gym was transformed with colored lights and gay booths into a County Fair for this year's Barnwarming. Students and townspeople munched popcorn and drank pink lemonade while they watched the show, which concerned the adventures of a country family at the County Fair. Among the attractions was a Freak Show featuring faculty members. Lovely Alice Davenport reigned as Queen.

THE MESSIAH

Soloists: Smith, Dooley, Munson, Ribble, Webb, Eaddy, Johnson, Shaffer, Measamer, Humes

Some three hundred singers and musicians participated in the seventeenth annual College presentation of Handel's "Messiah," considered the world's best known oratorio. Members of the Vesper Choir, All Girl Choir, Men's Glee Club and Orchestra were joined by interested student, faculty and community singers for this majestic Christmas program, presented for the third time in Alumni Gym. Orchestra and Chorus were directed by Mr. Harry Harter, with Miss Dorothy Horne as concert mistress. Miss Katharine Davies at the console of the electronic organ and Miss Garnet Manges at the piano accompanied the oratorio.

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

1950 February Meetings, seventy-fourth series since the inauguration of this spiritual emphasis week, were ably led by Dr. William M. Elliott, Jr., Ph.D., D.D., Pastor of Highland Park Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Texas. This was Dr. Elliott's second visit as leader of the Meetings.

Returning for the twenty-eighth time, Dr. Sidney E. Stringham of St. Louis, Missouri, directed the singing.

Dr. Elliott and Dr. Stringham, both capable and forceful personalities, conducted helpful and inspirational services.

Maryville College's lovely outdoor amphitheatre became a pre-Civil War plantation, complete with old Southern mansion and darkies, for the 1949 May Day pageant, "Plantation Story." Based on the Uncle Remus tales of Joel Chandler Harris and the music of Stephen Foster, "Plantation Story" was enjoyed by some 1,400 people in spite of being delayed by rain until the afternoon of May 3.

Following the coronation ceremony of lovely May Queen Virginia Hand, pageant-goers saw plantation children romp around lovable Uncle Remus, whose stories of Br'er Rabbit, Br'er Fox, Br'er Terrapin and all the rest came to dancing, singing life. The graceful dance around the pink and white Maypole brought the pageant to a close.

GIRL OF THE YEAR

RUTH HEAPS

Street, Maryland

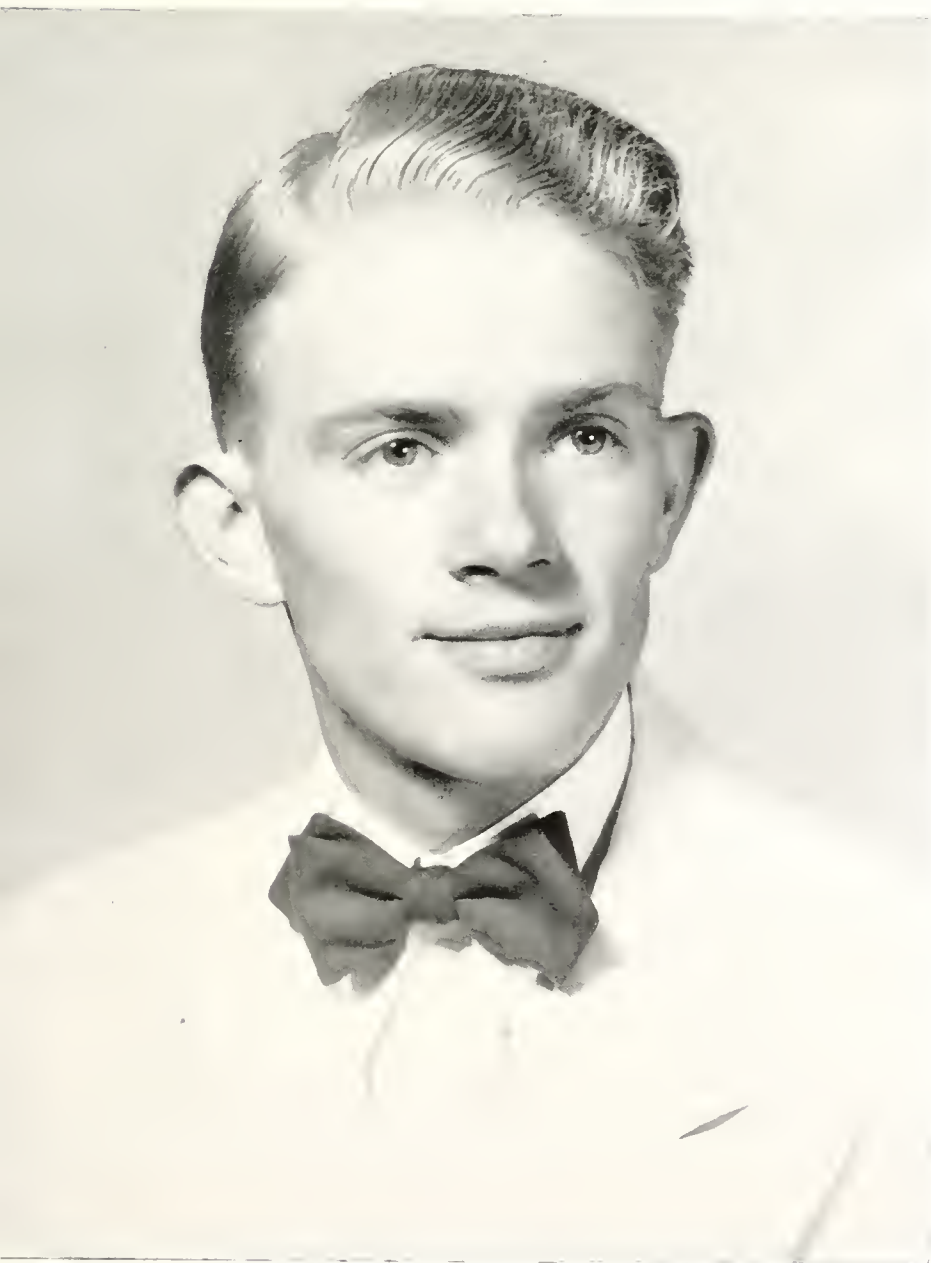

Boundless energy, varied interests, sincere friendliness—this describes Ruth as her many friends see her. We see Ruth in paint-spattered jeans behind the scenes of many college shows; we see her active in all sports; we see her conscientious in YW and other Christian service; we see her consistently high in scholarship and leadership. We see Ruth in the future, fulfilling all the high hopes and expectations we have for her.

That cheerful grin and hearty greeting could belong only to Webster. Delivering the mail, presiding at Athenian, stimulating the Student Body on to a new high in pep and cooperation, leading in Sunday School and YM, balancing studies with outside activities—he enters into all his varied activities with the same friendly enthusiasm which we foresee will make his future life rich and full.

The Student Council represents Maryville College's all-campus student governing body. Under this representation plan, every MCer has several channels through which his ideas, opinions and problems reach the consideration of the Council. The Student Body Constitution, revised each year, represents a new high in student self-government. All-campus elections are conducted by the Council, and through the Social Board it plays a large part in planning campus activities and entertainments.

Since 1946 the women students on campus have carried important responsibilities through their Women's Student Government Association. Based upon a constitution worked out cooperatively by faculty members and student representatives, W. S. G. A. has made splendid progress in developing high morale and effective management in the women's dormitories. Long-desired Senior Privileges have become a part of the College tradition, thanks to the work of W. S. G. A. and the cooperation of all the girls. In frequent house meetings the girls discuss their problems and ideas for improvements; these, in turn, reach the Student Council via W.S.G.A.'s able president.

Taking this year as their theme "Get the Center Right," YWCA joined with YMCA to stress Christianity through leadership and fellowship. Freshman women are made to feel at home each fall through the Big & Little Sister program worked out by YWCA, and all women students are included in some part of its extensive program—Sunday meetings, Nu Gamma, Pi Gamma, prayer meetings, Barnwarming, and the M Book.

YWCA sponsors Pi Gamma, an organization for women town students through which town and dormitory students meet and become better acquainted with each other. This is chiefly achieved through the medium of luncheons to which both dorm residents and women town students are invited. A number of such luncheons are given each year, and most women students are invited to attend at least once. These informal get-togethers over a luncheon table, it is felt, strengthen the bond between "dorm girls" and their sister "town girls."

Working Christianity was stressed in the "Get the Center Right" theme developed this year by YMCA, joining with YWCA. All men of the college get more than a good chance to enter into YMCA's far-reaching program—Sunday

Bainonian society's division into Greek-letter chapters means more active participation in its varied activities for all members of this friendly women's society. College women get a chance to make lasting friendships in Bainonian. This year's Rush Week theme was Week of the Highland Fling; at the end of a Scotch-conscious week new freshmen were invited to Ath-Bain Theatre to see "If Ye Meet the Right Laddie," an original musical play built about an old Scotch legend. The plot concerned two Army pilots whose plane crashes in the Scotch highlands where they meet two cute lassies and get mixed up with a couple of feuding clansmen. Athenian, Bainonian's brother society, joins it for Rush Week and a dance each year.

Theta Epsilon society still has the pep and friendliness that marked its founding in 1894. College women who are members can take advantage of active participation in all the varied activities that Theta carries on during the year. Theta's Rush Week program this year featured Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe, complete with soft lights, sweet music, Billy Rose and Diamond Lil. A fast-paced night club musical revue included songs and dances from current Broadway shows, concluded by a Theta can-can chorus and some singing waiters from Alpha Sigma, Theta's brother society which joins it each year for the Rush Week program. Theta and Alpha Sig also sponsor an annual dance and hold weekly meetings at which varied programs are presented.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE PARISH

Through the program of the Maryville College Parish, interested students participate in leadership training and Christian service. The parish is under the supervision of the Department of Religion and students are directed in their work by Dr. Ralph T. Case of the Department of Sociology. Limited college credit is given for activity in the work of the parish, which includes Sunday School teaching, weekday Bible classes, and supervision of other kinds of character building programs for young people. This organization is sponsored and supported jointly by Maryville College, New Providence Presbyterian Church, the Boards of National Missions, and of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A.

Three feature productions and three Experimental Theatre duo-bills were presented by the newly-organized Maryville College Playhouse during the season. In the fall, the chilling murder mystery "Laura" played two nights to packed houses on the new portable stage in Alumni Gymnasium. "Hedda Gabler" was produced on March 17-18, and "Joan of Lorraine" was the Commencement play.

Experimental Theatre opened in the fall with two one-act plays, "Happy Journey" and "Gammer Gurton's Needle," the former an ultra-modern play, the latter a pre-Shakespearean farce. In February the highly experimental "Theatre of the Soul" and "Boy Comes Home" were given, and "Echo" was produced in April.

FOOTBALL

Our Highlanders turned in an average year of football for the 1949 season. In a ten-game schedule, five games were won and five lost. Considering the quality of our opponents, it can be said that the Scots acquitted themselves admirably.

The season started off as usual with a warm-up tussle with Hiwassee College—final score 47-6; but a week later the Scots and the whole student body were to be found at Duff Field in Knoxville, cheering the team on to a 13-0 victory over traditional rivals, Carson-Newman's Eagles.

SEASON

Next opponents of 1949 were the vaunted Blue Raiders of Middle Tennessee State. Scots lost that one on MTS's field, mostly due to the aerial attack developed by Raider quarterback J. B. Proctor. Score at the final whistle was 45-13. Centre College's Praying Colonels were fair game the next week-end, but the score was a close 28-25 in favor of the Highlanders. Danville, Kentucky, was the scene of this epic match; and while the Scotties slugged it out, most of the rest of us sat at home with ears glued to the radio.

with all its festivities, not the least of which was the gridiron duel with Western North Carolina Teacher's Catamounts. Alumni and students climaxed the day with cheers at this spectacular game. That, again, was too close for comfort, although the final score of 20-13 does not show it.

After Homecoming, however, our luck ran out. On November 5 the Scots journeyed to Clarksville where

The final game of the season, with Jacksonville
State Teacher's College at Anniston, Alabama, resulted in another loss for Maryville. There was an op-

when the Scots forced the ball back to Jacksonville's one-yard marker. The attempt failed, however, and the final score was 20-14 for the Teachers.

With eight men back from last year to carry the colors, Coach Honaker had the makings of a fine ball club. The only thing that held this year's team down was a lack of height which was costly for the early part of the season until the Highlanders found a working combination.

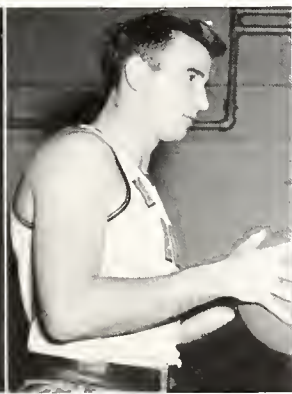

The Scots started the season off slowly in losing several tough ones on the road over the holidays, but bounced back to string up a four-game winning streak which was broken by a strong Chattanooga team.

The season was packed with thrills. There are not many who will forget the game with Tusculum when Brahams scored in the last 15 seconds to win . . . the contest against LMU in which the Scots found themselves . . . the Union game, though lost, which saw the Scots come from behind in a gym-shaker only to lose . . . and the ever unforgettable Hiwassee games which were the first ever won by a Hiwassee team—the last one being won as the horn sounded.

Getting Ready for the Real Thing

With six lettermen back to form the nucleus of a strong wrestling team, Coach John A. Davis looked forward to one of the best teams in years.

Triumphs were registered over Knox Y (30-0 and 25-5), Chattanooga (22-7 and 21-10), and Vanderbilt (22-6) to give the Scot rasslers a pretty good claim on the state championship title laurels.

Only a 22-8 loss to always powerful Auburn marred an otherwise good season and this was on a two-night roadtrip to Auburn and Tech.

At this writing, the Scots had two matches to go, with Arkansas State and Vanderbilt yet to test the matmen's strength before the Southeastern AAU tournament in Atlanta.

Last spring the Highlanders finished another year of winning baseball under the "Dean of Southern Baseball Coaches," Lombe Honaker. Orange and Garnet batmen won sixteen games, lost six, and tied none.

MC dropped the opening doubleheader to the Miami University Redskins of Oxford, Ohio; but after this initial defeat of the season it was smoother sailing. Western North Carolina's Catamounts toppled four times in the next week to the tune of 4-3, 10-8, 7-5, and 6-1, as the Orange and Garnet tide rolled on to defeat every other opponent at least once.

TPI and East Tennessee State each won a road game, 9-4 and 8-7 respectively, but the Scots came right back in home games with scores of 11-5 and 7-3. The first game with Carson-Newman resulted in a Highlander 13-4 win, while a return game at Jefferson City netted the Eagles a 7-4 handback.

Middle Tennessee State and Emory and Henry lost 7-5 and 8-3 in the single encounters, but the Sweetwater VFW sank the Scots 4-3 in a close game there. LMU went down twice, 12-3, and 6-2, while Tusculum was bowled over 15-10 and 10-2.

Eight energetic young people are responsible for the rousing cheers heard at football games, basketball games, pep meetings, and team sendoffs throughout the year at MC. A great deal of this noise they make themselves; a lot more they urge from frantic crowds who are mostly willing to insist that "We Want a Touchdown!" "Make That Goal!" "Howie Howie Chilhowie!" and all the other ton-sil-splitting vocal spurs the Cheerleaders call forth. Head Cheerleader Arch Swarztrauber, working with Pep Committee chairman Webster Fue, has brought lots of friendly cooperative pep to MC sports life.

INTRAMURALS

Intramural sports increased in popularity during the various sports seasons. Winners in the leagues were 7-man Football, YMCA; Soccer, YMCA; Basketball (with 20 teams in the league), Whizzers; Volleyball (1949), Mars; Softball (1949), Eight-balls. Six other tournaments were held; Wes Miles won the tennis tournament, Jerry Sayres in Golf, Chesley Anderson in Ping-pong, and Tasker Robinette in Foul Shooting. Wrestling and Badminton tournaments were also held. Tom Kelly won over 23 participants in a Cross-country meet, and a swimming and a track meet were held too late for results to be published. Included under the Intramural program are the Tumbling Club, which gives gymnastic exhibitions, and the Fencing Club.

T R A C K

MC's red-letter 1949 track season opened with a bang against TPI when Scotty thin-clads tromped the Techmen 110.5 to 20.5. Next, honors were split with Wofford of South Carolina in a 56 point tie for first place at the Miligan Relays. Best meet of the season, at least for the Highlanders, was an 80-51 defeat of the Moccasins of the University of Chattanooga. Maryville ranked fourth in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Track meet in Knoxville, last event of the season.
